7 General meeting

- 7.1 Within the limits of the law and the stipulations in the company's articles of association, the general meeting has the highest authority in all matters pertaining to the company.
- 7.2 The annual general meeting shall be held each year before the end of January in either Roskilde Municipality or at an address in the greater Copenhagen Area.
- 7.3 An extraordinary general meeting may be convened when the Board of Directors or the auditor elected at the general meeting consider it expedient or when shareholders representing a total of 5% of the share capital in the Company file a written request. The request should contain the subject for discussions. The extraordinary general meeting must be convened within 2 weeks after receiving the request.
- 7.4 The Board of Directors may decide to hold the company's general meetings in a completely electronic format without allowing any physical access. Participation in completely electronic general meetings takes place via electronic media allowing the company's shareholders to participate in, speak and vote at the general meeting and ensures that the general meeting can be held safely and in accordance with the provisions of the Danish Companies Act.
- 7.5 All general meetings must be convened by the Board of the Directors with a notice period of at least 3 weeks and no more than 5 weeks on the Company's website, www.rias.dk, and through the Danish Business Authority's IT-system.
- 7.6 The notice to convene the general meeting should also be sent to the shareholders that are registered in the shareholder's register of shareholders and have separately made such a request. Furthermore, the notice to convene the general meeting should also be sent to the representatives mentioned in section 3.7.
- 7.7 The notice to convene the general meeting must contain the agenda and if it includes proposals requiring qualified majority, these proposals and a brief description hereof should be mentioned.

- 7.8 The agenda and the detailed proposals for adoption and, with regard to the annual general meeting, also the annual report must be published on the company's website, www.rias.dk, in the period between the notice to convene and the date of the general meeting in order to give the shareholders access to this information.
- 7.9 Any shareholder is entitled to put forward proposals to be discussed at the general meeting. All proposals should be made in writing and received by the company 6 weeks prior to the date of the general meeting, cf. section 7.2.
- 7.10 At the general meeting every A-share amount of DKK 100 corresponds to 10 votes and every B-share amount of DKK 100 corresponds to 1 vote. The voting right may be exercised by power of attorney according to a written proxy.
- 7.11 A shareholder's right to participate and vote at the general meeting is determined by his shareholding on the registration date (1 week before the general meeting). For shareholders with A-shares the shareholding is determined by the shareholders' register on the registration date and the information received by the company regarding ownership to be registered in the shareholders' register, which has not yet been registered in the shareholders' register. Ownership of B-shares is determined by the registration with Computershare A/S on the registration date.
- 7.12 In addition to the conditions mentioned in section 7.11, a shareholder's right to participate in the general meeting is conditioned on him providing proof of his shareholding and holding an admission card no later than 3 days prior to the general meeting.
- 7.13 Admission cards for A-shareholders may be obtained against presentation of shares or an indication of the serial numbers of the shares.
- 7.14 Admission cards for B-shareholders may be obtained against presentation of a transcript from Computershare A/S, verifying that the person concerned has been registered as a shareholder in the company. The transcript from Computershare A/S should be issued less than one month prior to the date of the general meeting and carry an endorsement by the appointed financial institution stating that the shares will not be transferred prior to the date of the general meeting.
- 7.15 If the B-shares are registered in the name of the shareholder, admission cards may be obtained against indication of the account number with Computershare A/S.

- 7.16 The general meeting is presided over by a chairman appointed by the general meeting and has the power to decide on all questions regarding the legality of the general meeting, the handling of the items on the agenda and the voting.
- 7.17 The agenda for the annual general meeting must include:
